

Williams Mullen Continues Strategic Growth in North Carolina with Addition of Veteran Litigator Walt Tippett

10.03.2023

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Walter "Walt" L. Tippett, Jr. has joined the firm's Raleigh office as a partner in its Litigation Section.

Tippett has over 25 years of litigation and business counseling experience advising clients on a range of issues including fiduciary relationships, ownership rights, real estate development, construction, and technology and research innovations.

Tippett frequently works with closely held companies dealing with governance issues, investments, shareholder, and borrowing relationships. Tippett also routinely handles regulatory and administrative compliance matters, including matters before professional licensing boards, agencies and commissions.

"We are thrilled to have Walt join our Raleigh office," said David Paulson, Williams Mullen's Carolinas Managing Partner. "Walt's significant experience handling complex matters in commercial, business, regulatory and construction litigation further strengthens our firm's ability to guide our clients through difficult challenges."

Tippett's addition marks the firm's third North Carolina veteran partner hire in the last three months.

Tippett is licensed to practice in North Carolina, as well as the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court. Tippett received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of North Carolina School of Law and his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
