Governor Bob McDonnell Announces Appointment of Robert R. Kaplan, Jr. to Board of Housing and Community Development

Richmond, VA (July 31, 2012) On July 27, 2012, Governor Bob McDonnell announced the appointment of Robert R. Kaplan, Jr., Managing Partner, Practices, at Kaplan Voekler Cunningham & Frank, PLC (KVCF) to the Board of Housing and Community Development, of the Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development (“DHCD”), to serve for a 4 year term.

The Board of Housing and Community Development promulgates regulations related to housing, community development, building safety, and fire prevention. These regulations include the Uniform Statewide Building Code, Statewide Fire Prevention Code, Virginia Certification Standards, and Virginia Enterprise Zone Regulations. The Board also advises DHCD in the development of the Consolidated Plan to guide and coordinate housing and community development programs, the Virginia Housing Development Authority and other state agencies and instrumentalities. The board also establishes the rules and regulations for the Virginia Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Program.

About the Firm:

Founded in 2005, Kaplan Voekler Cunningham & Frank, PLC was established with one primary objective: to create a law firm capable of representing clients with sophisticated needs at a cost level that our clients can appreciate. To accomplish the Firm’s objective, KVCF has built a team of lawyers who come from top firms in the region and have been educated at some of the nation’s top law schools. As a Firm, we commit to provide our clients service based on two tenets; First, we believe the best attorney-client relationship is founded on trust and accountability. Second, we view our clients as partners whose success is vital to the success of the Firm.
