PRESS RELEASE

Steve Baril Joins KVCF

RICHMOND, VA --- Steve Baril, well-respected trial lawyer and business advocate, was named Partner and the head of the Richmond Litigation and Government Relations teams at Kaplan Voekler Cunningham and Frank, PLC (KVCF).

Grady Frank, KVCF's General Counsel and head of the Alexandria Litigation team, explained, "It is a great time for the firm - new office space in downtown Richmond with new energy and a new practice area. I have known Steve for years and I am looking forward to practicing with him. His reputation as a successful litigator and business advocate will be a great addition."

Baril has over twenty-five years of experience litigating complex matters for Richmond businesses and is recognized by business owners, executives and entrepreneurs as a "go-to" advocate for dispute resolution. When asked about his move to KVCF, Steve Baril commented, "I am excited to become a Partner at a progressive and entrepreneurial firm that shares my vision on marketing, offering alternative and flexible fee arrangements and effective, result-oriented solutions."

Over his career, Baril has also been deeply involved in public service and politics. He served on Governor Robert McDonnell's Economic Development and Jobs Creation Commission, where he chaired the New Business Recruitment Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Richmond Chamber of Commerce, J. Sergeant Reynolds Community College and Venture Richmond. He is treasurer and board member of the Richmond's Future think tank and is the Secretary/Treasurer of The Forum Club.

Baril graduated Phi Beta Kappa and summa cum laude from Hampden Sydney College. He earned his law degree at the University of Richmond School of Law, where he was a member of the McNeil Society, Law Review and Omicron Delta Kappa. He is listed in Best Lawyers in America and has been rated AV, the highest possible ranking for ethics and experience, by the Martindale Hubbell Peer Review rating system. Steve has been recognized by his peers in Virginia Business magazine's "Virginia Legal Elite" as a "Super Lawyers" for Business Litigation by Virginia Lawyers magazine.

About the Firm

Kaplan Voekler Cunningham & Frank, PLC (KVCF), founded in 2005, is a Richmond based law firm with offices in Northern Virginia and Houston, Texas. At KVCF it is our goal to be more than "just another law firm." Prior to joining KVCF, many of our lawyers gained invaluable experience handling sophisticated matters for Fortune 500 clients while working for the largest law firms in the region. We understand the demands of the current business environment and use an efficient business model to make our services affordable for all of our clients, large or small.
